

MUSEUM ITINERARIES

Pasadena is known for its abundance of important cultural institutions. Many situated within walking distance of one another. To make planning easier we have listed Pasadena's key cultural institutions along with planning suggestions aimed at making your planning easier.

FULL DAY – ONE ATTRACTION

Norton Simon Museum could be a full day visit. If you only have a few hours arrange a guide or use the self-guided audio tour and select specific collections you wish to view. There is a small café located in the garden for light refreshments.

Huntington Library, Art Collections, and Botanical Gardens easily fills a day or more. Arrange for a 90-minute, guided tour to see a sampling of art and gardens. Tea service is available and requires a reservation or enjoy ala cart lunch at the Café.

FULL DAY – TWO OR MORE ATTRACTIONS

Millionaire Row - The Norton Simon Museum is located within 2 blocks of The Gamble House and the Pasadena Museum of History making it possible to visit all institutions in one day for a very full day of art, architecture and culture. It's important to note that the Pasadena Museum of History campus includes the Finnish Folk Art Museum and the Fenyés Mansion. You may choose to visit only one of the three facilities.

The Pacific Asia Museum is an extraordinary and intimate setting and can be easily experienced between 45 – 90 minutes. Located next door is the Pasadena Museum of California Art ideal for those wishing to enjoy art by prominent California artists.

FREE

Armory Center for the Arts is located in Old Pasadena and within walking distance of city hall making this an easy add on to an itinerary. Williamson Gallery displays cutting edge works unique gallery located in the Art Center hillside campus above the Rose Bowl
